

"KENTUCKY HOSPITALITY"

All Delegates to Lexington Convention Will Be Entertained by Local Suffragists.

The suffragists of the Fayette Equal Rights Association desire to entertain all delegates to the annual convention of the Kentucky Equal Rights Association in Lexington Nov. 8-10. Mrs. M. W. Clark, 365 S. Ashland avenue, Lexington, Ky., is chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and it is requested that all persons who expect to attend the Lexington convention as delegates send their names and addresses at once to Mrs. Clark, that she may arrange for their entertainment. Headquarters of the convention will be at the Phoenix Hotel and all business and night sessions of the convention will be held there, except that of the opening night, when Mrs. Snowden speaks at the Lexington Opera House. A banquet will be given in the ballroom of the Phoenix Tuesday evening, for which tickets may be secured in advance, price $1.00, from Mrs. J. B. Judah, 2115 Murray avenue, Louisville, Ky. Mrs. Clarence Lebus, of Lexington, is the local chairman in charge of banquet arrangements.

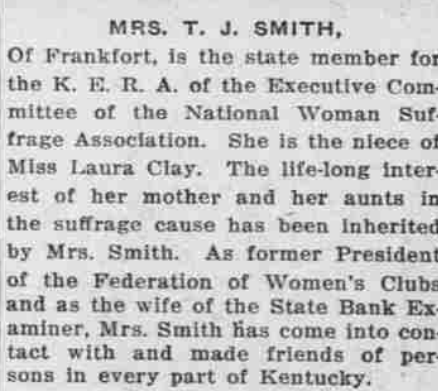

MRS. DESHA BRECKINRIDGE, Of Lexington, President of the K. E. R. A., ends her three-year term of office as President at the annual meeting to be held in Lexington, Nov. 8-10, and her successor will be chosen. The membership of the K. E. R. A. has gone up since November, 1912, when Mrs. Breckinridge came into office, from 1,779 members to over 15,000, an increase typical of the rapid advance of suffrage sentiment everywhere in the last few years.

MADAME ROSIKA SCHWIMMER, of Buda Pest, Hungary, will deliver her wonderful address on Peace at the suffrage convention in Lexington, Tuesday, November 9. Madame Schwimmer came to this country in 1914 as the representative of the women's organizations of many countries to plead for concerted intervention of the neutral nations for cessation of hostilities in Europe. None who heard her fiery eloquence, her impassioned pleading, her description of what she said was not war but "the destruction of Europe and of civilization" can soon forget. After the International Congress of three women at The Hague Madame Schwimmer was one of the delegation of three women of whom Jane Addams is the one best known to Americans, to wait upon the rulers of six European countries.

MRS. SAMUEL HENNING, Of Louisville, Auditor of the K. E. R. A., was Miss Judah Duke, daughter of General Basil Duke, himself a believer in woman suffrage, as are many of the Confederate veterans of Kentucky, and a niece of that other beloved Confederate leader, John Morgan. Mrs. Henning has recently concluded a term as President of the Louisville Woman Suffrage Association.

MRS. T. J. SMITH, Of Frankfort, is the state member for the K. E. R. A. of the Executive Committee of the National Woman Suffrage Association. She is the niece of Miss Laura Clay. The life-long interest of her mother and her aunt in the suffrage cause has been inherited by Mrs. Smith. As former President of the Federation of Women's Clubs and as the wife of the State Bank Examiner, Mrs. Smith has come into contact with and made friends of persons in every part of Kentucky.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS

Sept. 30, 1915.

To The Voters of Madison County: I am addressing you in the interest of my candidacy to represent the county in the next Legislature. I wish to say I have always had a desire to represent the county in that body, because of my varied experience in matters pertaining to what I deem to be for the best interests of the State.

In the first place, I was born and reared upon the farm and am still a farmer, believe I know what is the best interests of the farmers, and at the same time, believe there should be nothing passed through and enacted into legislation that would prove detrimental to other callings or legitimate business of any kind; and having been engaged as a merchant and having a general knowledge of business and the needs of the general public, I believe I can represent all classes fairly and to the best interests of the State.

For many years I have taught in the public schools of the county, as to my qualifications and ability to represent the county, I refer to those who know me best: I have never in my life tasted intoxicating liquors, and believe in the strict enforcement of the County Unit Law, and favor the enforcement of all laws.

I favor a better taxing system, and lower taxes: longer school terms and few changes in school books; last but not least, I believe in good roads economically constructed.

While I have always affiliated with the Republican party, I am not a partisan and do not entertain bitter feelings for the Democracy, and will greatly appreciate any Democratic aid that may be given me.

I solicit your votes irrespective of party, and if elected, shall endeavor to act honestly in the discharge of the duties that come upon me, doing in every instance what I deem to be the best interests of all.

Yours Truly, G. B. Moore.

PRISON FARM SHOWS PROFIT

Experiment of Board of Prison Commissioners Solves Problem

MEANS SAVING TO TAXPAYERS

Interesting Statement Issued by Warden A. J. G. Wells, of the Kentucky State Reformatory—State Farm Shows Profit of $4,826.81 During Fourteen Months.

Frankfort, Ky.—(Special).—The experiment of employing the prisoners of the state on the State Farm seems to be a decided success. After a thorough trial of the plan of the Board of Prison Commissioners and Warden Wells, there is a net profit to the state of $4,826.81 in fourteen months.

At the request of R. C. Terrell, Commissioner of Roads, A. J. G. Wells, Warden of the Kentucky State Reformatory, has prepared a statement covering the period the plan has been in operation. Warden Wells covers his two years' experience with a limited number of prisoners on the State Farm. Mr. Wells said in part:

"The Legislature of 1914 authorized by law the lease of a farm, with an option of purchase at the end of the lease. In accordance therewith, the Board of Prison Commissioners, on recommendation of myself, as Warden, and with the approval of the Sinking Fund Commissioners, of which the Governor is a member, leased the Mastin farm, consisting of 462 acres, about 1 1/2 miles from the prison, and in the bend of the Kentucky river, just opposite the new capitol, for an annual rental of $3,000 per year. The Legislature adjourned on March 19, 1914, negotiations were carried on with several landowners and a contract concerning the prison was put into work on the farm April 10, 1914. This, of course, was too late to get the best results the first year. This late start, which was unavoidable, and the severe drought which followed, made it a trying test for the first year, but to spite of both of these serious handicaps, even this year made a most satisfactory showing.

"A summary of expenditures and receipts of the farm, from April, 1914, to July 1, 1915, shows a net gain of $4,826.81, after charging the farm with all labor at the same average price paid inside the prison. Moreover, this net gain does not take into account many crops that had not developed sufficiently to accurate invoice on said date. These crops are as follows: 10 acres of tobacco, 25 acres of late Irish potatoes, 1 acre of sweet potatoes, 8 acres sugar cane, 7 acres turnips, 2 1/2 acres cabbage, 15 acres beans, 5 acres green, 1/2 acre cucumbers, 1 acre carrots, 6 acres melons.

"The season since July 1 has continued good, and the products above named have added materially to the balance above stated. We have, since July 1, put in for use in the prison 12,000 gallon cans of beans, tomatoes, corn and apples. All the cattle and hogs are slaughtered at the farm, and sold to the prison at less price than the balance above stated. The meat institutions similarly situated, the meats, vegetables and other products are served fresh, and are altogether more wholesome and palatable than from the packers' cold storage. The better health of the prison population resulting is within itself a large asset.

"The farm, on account of its proximity to the prison and its splendid isolation, is ideally located. There are on the farm inexhaustible ledges of limestone, and within a few feet of a railroad and the Kentucky river. A rock crusher of sufficient capacity at this point, operated by prison labor, could easily supply a large demand for road material throughout the state.

"The railroad and river facilities for shipment should insure reasonable transportation rates. In my opinion, there is no place in the market which furnishes so many attractive features as this one for farming on a small scale, and for the production and transportation of road material, by the use of prison labor.

"It might be interesting in this connection to state that out of 179 prisoners sent to the farm at different times, only 4 have escaped, and 2 of them returned. These prisoners remain at the farm at night, and while they are under the direction and guard of Capt. J. P. Schorbus, they have, necessarily, many opportunities to escape, if they were so inclined, and do not mean by this statement, however, to indicate that prisoners, indiscriminately, can be trusted on the outside. We are exempted, as far as surrounding circumstances would permit, to exercise good judgment in their selection for this work. My estimate is that possibly 25 per cent of the prison population could be worked on the outside, and the production of road material, with reasonable transportation under proper, careful and humane direction. A great deal will depend upon the plan adopted and selection of the agent, or agents, who shall execute the plan.

"If such venture is to be made by the state, a bill should be carefully drawn, after mature consultation with those who have had actual and successful experience in the handling of prisoners, and before the meeting of the Legislature. No half-baked, hastily conceived plan should be passed in this connection."
